It is a platform for teenagers to share their initiation, creativity, and enthusiasm which will then motivate them and more of the other teenagers in the nation to develop an entrepreneurial thinking.

This is the third year of the first ever program designed in the country to recognize dedicated, passionate, and innovative teenagers so as to encourage their initiatives. Bipana Sharma, a 17-year old child rights activist from Sunwal, Nawalparasi, and Shantosh Lamichhane, a young scientist were felicitated with the First and Second Glocal Teen Hero awards in the years 2015 and 2016 respectively.

The aim for this year is to reach the teenagers nationwide to provide them the platform, for which the Glocal team accompanied by Teen Hero from the last year and a jury member will be going to various sixteen destinations including Dhangadhi, Mahendranagar, Nepalguni, Tulsipur, Baglung, Butwal, Bhairahawa, Janakpur, Jhapa, Biratnagar, Lahan, Banepa, and Pokhara apart from the Kathmandu Valley. The main objective of this initiative is to bring out teenagers from different parts of Nepal.

This year, Glocal has partnered with Wai Wai, Coca-Cola, Panchakanya Group, Toyota-VOITH, Honda, QFX Cinemas, and Landmark Education. Soaltee Crowne Plaza is the official hotel partner for the event. Nepal Tourism Board, European Union, UNDP and National Youth Council are the strategic partners, and the initiation is in support of Sustainable Development Goals with the slogan "Teens for Sustainable Development Goals". Qatar Airways is the airline partner. Sparrow is the SMS partner. Facts, Code for Nepal, IMS Group, YUW AYON, Leo, Restless Development and KGH Group are the supporters for the program. The Grand Finale and the award ceremony of the event would be live broadcasted on AP1 HD Television.

Cajol Jha, Manager, Public Relations at Glocal Pvt. Ltd and Coordinator for Wai Wai Glocal Teen Hero, speaking amidst the press release ceremony for the award shared that they are glad to be associated with these renowned and prestigious organizations to continue the legacy.

"We initiated Teen Hero award just to show that teenagers also have a lot of capacity and are doing significant things that can benefit the society and at large nation. They lacked a platform to showcase what they have achieved and we are satisfied that we are able to make progress on providing that to the teenagers" said Ashish Thakur, Executive Director of Glocal Pvt. Ltd.

YES! Club World Nepal which is regarded as possibly Nepal's only Kids, Teens, Young and Adults Club of largest volunteer based NGO The Art of Living recently partnered with Glocal Pvt. Ltd. for its 3rd edition of Glocal Teen Hero and also for Glocal Teen Conference. Both the entities signed a memorandum of understanding to encourage large participation of teenagers for Glocal Teen Hero 2017. Youth Activist Gaurav Kandel also the Founding Initiator of View Your Choice extended the collaboration to showcase positive influencing stories of teenagers as well as Glocal Teen Heroes through its blog platform www.viewyourchoice.org. View Your Choice has been producing positive influencing stories and showcasing aggregators of change through its platform as well as involved in several development campaigns including recent CNN Super Hero Campaign.

YES! Club World – Nepal has reached out to thousands of teenagers via its workshops All Round Training In Excellence, Youth Empowerment Seminar and through its regular Club initiatives at its centres all across Nepal as well as through its collaborations at several schools, high schools and colleges since its inception in 2009. Gaurav Kandel, Program and Projects Coordinator who leads the initiative shared, “Teenagers here in Nepal or abroad have already proved for their amazing abilities with their intuitive nature and ability and we should be a catalyst to encourage and motivate them through workshops as well as similar initiatives like Glocal Teen Hero.” He added, “Glocal motivating them by not just awarding these Teen Heroes but also acknowledging them as ambassadors is really exemplary.” YES! Club World Nepal has too been awarding kids and teenagers as Bal Utsav – Celebrating Talent – Ambassadors in Music, Arts and Dance every year who then these ambassadors work to organize the following year in January.

Initiatives like Glocal Teen Hero breaks the notion here in Nepal of empowering young people that has core been focused on young adults and not especially on teenagers who are really thoughtful, creative, innovative and with great talent who need proper guidance and mentorship along with motivation. YES! Club World – Nepal has been partnership with schools to motivate teenagers as well as kids and build their intuitive quality through its workshops and club initiatives that are run across 155 countries through The Art of Living Foundation.

First Wai Wai Glocal International Teen Conference to be held

Share this:

Glocalkhabar is going to organize the first Wai Wai Glocal International Teen Conference on September 1, 2017.

Wai Wai Glocal International Teen Conference (GITC) is the first ever international conference for teenagers in Nepal. GITC is an opportunity for teenagers to authentically address issues that are important to them without having to overcome generational barriers. The conference will showcase the ideas, experience, and stories of the teenagers from countries like Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Liberia, etc. through the series of panel discussion. The panel majors on Entrepreneurship, Empowerment and Socio-Perspective.

The main objective of this conference is to be the platform of the Global Teenagers' Meet and set an example of teenagers who have worked in countries with more difficulties and spreading a positivity that things are possible with efforts. It is a platform for knowledge and experience where teenagers can learn about leadership, empowerment and social impact through a participatory and interactive environment with their peers from all over the globe.

The conference will be held at Soaltee Crowne Plaza and will be followed by the Grand celebration of Wai Wai Glocal Teen Hero award.

Kathmandu, August 15, 2017: After a fantastic response from teenagers around the nation, we are delighted to announce the shortlist for the Wai Wai Glocal Teen Hero 2017.

This year's competition received over 320 applications, from fascinating teenagers demonstrating diverse potential of this often-underlooked age-group of people. The applicants had demonstrated their skills and expertise, and made an impact in their society, from areas like social work to journalism, from mobile app development and computer programming, to robotics, and from entrepreneurship to community development among others.

Albina Parwin (16 years, Social Activist, Sunsari), Ayush Pandey (17 years, Computer Programmer, Rupandehi), Prithu Singh Thakuri (19 years, Entrepreneur, Kathmandu), Rajaram Basnet (18 years, Social Activist, Dolakha), Sachin Dangli (18 years, Social Activist, Dang), and Tanmay Chaudhary (17 years, Social Activist, Dhagadhi), have been selected among top 6 candidates for the competition, the only national platform in Nepal to recognize and honor the outstanding teenagers.

Glocal Teen Hero is a platform for Nepali teenagers to share their initiation, creativity, and enthusiasm which will then motivate them and more of the other teenagers in the nation to develop an entrepreneurial thinking.

This is the third edition of the first ever program designed in the country to recognize dedicated, passionate, and innovative teenagers so as to encourage their initiatives. Bipana Sharma, a 17-year old child rights activist from Sunwal, Nawalparasi, and Santosh Lamichhane, a young scientist were felicitated with the First and Second Glocal Teen Hero awards in the years 2015 and 2016 respectively.

Started from inside the Kathmandu valley only in the year of inception, the competition this year had reached out to teenagers nationwide (16 different destinations to be precise), and conducted information sessions in various schools and colleges.

To make the program a grand success, this year, Glocal has partnered with Wai Wai, Coca-Cola, Panchakanya Group, Honda, QFX Cinemas, Toyota (VOITH) and Landmark Education, Nepal Tourism Board, European Union, UNDP and National Youth Council are the strategic partners for the program. Facts, IMS Group, KGH Group, YUWA, AYON, Restless Development, YES! Club World Nepal and View Your Choice are the supporters of the program. Soattee Crowne Plaza is the official hospitality partner. Sparrow SMS is the SMS partner. Partnership with various such organizations working on youth-segment helped the program reach every nook and corners of the country, and ensured no teenagers having talents and potential were left-out from the competition.

The respected 5-member jury panel had shortlisted the 6 amazing teens (ages 13-19) for their achievements, initiations or contributions in any other field outside of their respective school's or college's curriculum. The jury panel this year comprises of Mr. Renaud Meyer, UNDP Country Director to Nepal, Mr. Suraj Vaidya, President of Vaidya's Organization of Industries, Mr. Upaul Majumdar, General Manager of Soattee Crowne Plaza, Reecha Sharma, actress, and Ranjit Acharya, CEO of Prisma Advertising.

The selection was based on their resume, the evidence and an essay on their accomplishment.

These six teens will now go through a six-days-long capacity building workshop.

The finalists would be individually interviewed by the panel of judges, and SMS voting round has opened that will select THE FANTASTIC TEEN for the year 2017.
